

Nantucket Island Resorts Announces NetJets as Official Aviation Partner

Nantucket Island Resorts is pleased to announce its partnership with NetJets, the worldwide leader in private aviation. Through the newly solidified relationship, NetJets Owners will enjoy exclusive benefits at both the White Elephant and The Wauwinet, two of the collection's premier hotels on-island reopening on April 12 and April 19, 2018 respectively.

In just over an hour, NetJets Owners can now travel from home cities such as New York or Boston to Nantucket's White Elephant or The Wauwinet where they will enjoy complimentary breakfast for two throughout their stay. For a longer getaway, NetJets Owners staying four or more nights will also receive an additional night at no extra cost.

With Nantucket Island Resorts, the convenience of luxury transportation doesn't stop at the water's edge. Once checked in, resort guests enjoy complimentary use of Priority Bicycles to easily navigate the cobblestone streets of downtown, while those staying in the top suites at the White Elephant and The Wauwinet will receive the keys to their own BMW hybrid for easy exploring farther afield. For those looking to get out on the water, resort guests also have access to members-only yachting service Barton & Gray for private cruises aboard a 36-foot Hinkley yacht departing from the White Elephant dock.

"We are thrilled to have NetJets on as our official aviation partner," commented Khaled Hashem, Managing Director of Nantucket Island Resorts. "We believe the guest experience should be seamless from start to finish, and the NetJets service is the perfect complement to the accessibility we aim to provide while on Nantucket. By land, sea, and now air, we've ensured our guests are able to conveniently move about the island in comfort and style."

The new NetJets partnership launches just in time for an exciting 2018 season that will include the 50th anniversary of the Nantucket Boat Basin and the marina's inaugural Father's Day Fishing Tournament.
