Where to stay: Stay right in town at Greydon House for easy access to shopping, food and ferries, or sneak away to the iconic, waterfront Wauwinet, the ultimate blend of luxury and charm. No matter where you stay, you can count on taxis or Uber rides to get you from A to B.

Where to eat: You can't not watch the sunset while double fisting Millie's tacos and margaritas in Madaket. For a no-frills brunch and life-changing doughnuts, head to the Downy Flake, otherwise try Island Kitchen for something slightly more elevated. For dinner in town, enjoy fabulous cocktails, a raw bar and a view of the harbor at Cru. Finally, if you don't wait in line at The Juice Bar for at least 20 minutes for homemade ice cream in a homemade waffle cone, did you even go to Nantucket?

What to do: Hit the beach on the south shore (that's where the swimming is best), ride your bikes out to 'Sconset, and stroll and shop in charming downtown. Don't miss an afternoon at Cisco Brewery for live music, awesome beer, the best blueberry vodka around and an award-winning food truck (lobster rolls for days). Come Saturday night, it's all about The Chicken Box—a lively, local gem of a bar that's always a good time and walking distance from more chill spots like Grey Lady.
